Market Overview

-  India and Africa are natural trade partners. Africa's abundant natural resources and raw materials are in high demand in resource-poor but human-capital-intensive countries like India. India imports raw materials, refines them, and exports them back to Africa as consumer goods, predominantly in the form of refined petroleum and pharmaceutical products.
-  The southern and western regions of Africa are the largest importers of Indian pharmaceuticals

India-South Africa Trade

-  In 2021, bilateral trade between the two countries reached around US$ 17 billion.
-  South Africa occupies the 35th position in FDI equity inflows into India with a cumulative FDI amount of US$ 589.76 million from April 2000 – September 2022.
-  In 2022 (January 2022 – November 2022), bilateral trade between India and South Africa reached around US$ 17,981 million.

Major Exported items from India to South Africa with Amount & Quantity

-  India exported 4,873 commodities to South Africa in FY 2021-22
-  India's export to South Africa stood at US$ 6.08 billion in FY 2021-22
-  Major exported items from India to South Africa include mineral oils & products, bituminous substances, and mineral waxes (US$ 1,420.68 million); followed by road vehicles and parts (US$ 1,318.16 million) in FY 2021-22.
-  India's export to South Africa stood at US$ 6.06 billion from April-November 2022.
-  Major exported items from India to South Africa include petroleum products (US$ 2,991 million) followed by motor vehicles (US$ 941 million) etc. from April-November 2022.

Pharma and Healthcare Market – South Africa

-  South Africa's pharmaceutical and medical device sectors are the largest and most advanced in sub-Saharan Africa.
-  Pharmaceutical and medical device sales have more than doubled in the last 10 years and are expected to reach R48bn and R19bn, respectively in 2019.
-  Pharmaceutical and medical device imports are concentrated among a small number of countries. For both sectors, the top five country sources of imports account for about 60% of all imports. Imports account for more than two-thirds of pharmaceutical sales. > The private health sector absorbs about two-thirds of pharmaceutical output, while the public health sector accounts for the remaining one-third.
-  Of the 265 South African pharmaceutical manufacturers, more than half exclusively supply the private sector, 10% exclusively supply the public health sector and the remaining companies supply both sectors.
-  Within medical device sales, consumables and diagnostic imaging devices are the largest segments.

Bilateral Trade Figures Between India and South Africa

-  India's exports to South Africa for 2022 – 2023 amounted to USD $ 8,474.42 million, and India's imports from South Africa amounted to USD $ 10,397.83 million. In 2023-24 Indian Export to South Africa stood at USD 6,263.23 million and Indian import at USD 8,266.95 million. Altogether the total figure currently stands at USD 14,530.18 million. Therefore, huge potential is there between India and South Africa.
-  Indian companies have a large presence in South Africa with an overall investment of over USD $ 8-9 billion. The main areas of engagement are pharmaceuticals, IT, automobile, banking, and mining, but there are still other sectors where Indian companies are doing brisk business.
